

BYLAWS

THE PRESBYTERY OF LONG ISLAND

CHAPTER I: INTRODUCTION

- A. The Presbytery of Long Island is a governing body of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). The organization and procedures of this presbytery shall be in accordance with the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). These bylaws shall contain only those functions and rules which are particular to the organization of the Presbytery of Long Island.
- B. The guiding principles of organization of this presbytery are:
1. The Holy Spirit calls us to transformation as individuals, as congregations, and as a Presbytery.
 2. The Church of Jesus Christ is always being transformed by God to be more faithful in a particular time and place.
 3. God commissions the church for mission into the world primarily through congregations. Congregational networks and partnerships can be effective and faithful agencies for transformation and mission. Mission conducted in a Presbytery area is best done in partnership with and among congregations.
 4. The Church is called to be Christ's faithful evangelist. (Book of Order G-3.0300c)
 5. The Presbytery is more than a structure, an organization, a governing body, a staff, or an office. The Presbytery is connected congregations, pastors, elected officers, appointed workers, and specialized ministries serving together "to coordinate the work of its member churches, guiding them and mobilizing their strength for the most effective witness to the broader community for which it has responsibility." (Book of Order G-11.0103b)
 6. The priorities for Presbytery are discerned in conversations about strengths, dreams, and needs of congregations voiced in gatherings.
 7. God calls the Presbytery leadership to be both committed to and reflective of its diversity. All people must be encouraged to fully share in roles of leadership.
 8. Presbytery governance shall embrace and encourage innovation and energy, while facilitating ministry initiatives, working cooperatively with other governing bodies, upholding standards of accountability, and maintaining fidelity to the Book of Order.
- C. The Presbytery shall use the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order as the parliamentary authority for the transaction of its business.
- D. The Presbytery consists of all ministers who are continuing members and of elders commissioned by the session of each church, the number of which shall be in accordance with the Form of Government. Each elder elected an officer of the Presbytery; a chairperson or one of the co-chairpersons a moderator, or a president of a Ministry Team or of a Support and Facilitation Network entity; or a member of the Shepherding Council shall be enrolled as a member of the Presbytery for the term of office. The Presbytery shall act to redress annually in January any imbalance in the number of elders according to an alphabetical listing of churches, on recommendation of the Stated Clerk.
